From the Headmaster...

Welcome Back!

Has it been worth it returning to school for just two days before embarking on another long weekend? Absolutely!

Today's celebratory activities in advance of the Royal Wedding have been fantastic and, I hope, will provide for the children a significant memory of a major historical event. In years to come they will look back at April 2011 and vividly recall the costumes, the plate painting, shield making and treasure hunt and even the open-air feast in front of the school.

I will include photographs in next week's SG Messenger.

I hope that you will all enjoy a terrific weekend.

Clubs and Activities

All parents should have received the email regarding clubs and activities sent on Wednesday. There is a copy attached to this Messenger if you did not receive it.

There are a couple of changes to the original list.

- ◆ Prep 4 Cookery Club on Thursday is now cancelled. We hope to reintroduce this club in the Autumn Term.
- ◆ FTD Dance Club on Friday is also available for Reception - Year 2 children from 3.15 to 3.45.
- ◆ Swimming Club for Years 1 and 2 on Tuesday is now full.
- ◆ All children have been allocated a tennis place. Please see the main notice board on Wednesday to see which day your child is playing tennis. Please send in a cheque payable to Hayne Barn for £45.00 per child for the term.
